RON FREDERIKSEN PRESENTS 2010 KYLE CORWIN AWARD TO STAN FRIEDBURG, MD

VANCOUVER, Wash. – Ron Frederiksen, President of RSV Building Solutions, presented the 2010 Kyle Corwin Lifetime Achievement Award to cardiologist Stan Friedburg, MD at the Vancouver Business Journal's recent "Accomplished and Under 40" at the Red Lion Hotel in Vancouver.

Dr. Friedburg, now retired, was only the 13th doctor hired at the Vancouver Clinic in 1966. The clinic that now employs over 750 employees and 200 clinicians in Clark County. In his time at the clinic, he served as a board chair and had a successful cardiology practice. He has been a lifelong advocate for the uninsured and underserved, which continues in his retirement with his work for the Free Clinic.

"I am proud to present this year's award to such a great leader in our community," Ron Frederiksen said. "This award is given to people who are not only successful, but honest and philanthropic, just like Kyle Corwin. Dr. Friedburg is certainly deserving of the honor."

The Kyle Corwin Award is given to a local leader every year that benefits the community through business and philanthropy, just as the late Kyle Corwin did. The award is given by the Corwin family, who owns Vancouver-based Corwin Beverage.

Frederiksen was the first winner of the inaugural award in 2008, and has presented Kyle Corwin Lifetime Achievement Awards to the last two winners – the late Tony Bacon in 2009 and Dr. Stan Friedburg in 2010. "As a former winner of the award, I know the sense of gratitude that a person feels when receiving it," said Frederiksen. "It is truly an honor to be recognized with an award that carries the name of such a great businessperson and man as Kyle Corwin."
